

I am writing you
because of my displeasure with the
Sinclair
Broadcasting Group
insisting that their affiliates show a
film this is very
biased. any film
that favors one
person over another
during a political campaign is an
advertisement and
should be stated as such.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get
more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real
people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
